V.

Books that will advance to the second round of the competition are evaluated comprehensively, ie in terms of the achieved level of quality, polygraphic design and in terms of art. The jury shall evaluate the awarded publications in writing.

The organizer reserves the right to exclude any competitor from the competition.

VI.

The books submitted to the competition are evaluated by an expert jury appointed by the Organizer. The jury is headed by the chairman, elected by jury members. The jury is obliged to obey the rules of competition and rules of procedure.

VII.

The jury evaluates only books that have been delivered on the date announced as the deadline for submitting entries to the competition.

The jury will decide the order of the books for the 1st – 3rd. place.

VIII.

The contestant with the first-placed book will receive the Organizer's main prize. The prize is indivisible and consists of PERGRAPHICA paper from Mondi Ltd. and printing of a winning book from a partner of the QUATRO PRINT, a.s.

Competitors placed on second and third place will receive a PERGRAPHICA paper pallet worth CZK 20,000 from Mondi Ltd.'s general partner.

In the case of winning the 1st place, the competitor commits to preparing the book graphically for its printing within 1 year from the announcement of the competition.

IX.

By participating in the contest, the contestants agree to the processing of their personal data and agree to use its contest presentation to promote the contest both in the Czech Republic and abroad.

X.

Organizational, administrative, promotional and technical work in the preparation, organization, and evaluation of the competition is provided by the Organizer.

XI.

The organizer of the competition ensures the preparation of the record of the jury meetings, which includes a written evaluation of the awarded publications and a written justification of the proposals for the awards, and the final report, including the organization of the jury session. The organizer is not a member of the jury.

XII.

The financial costs associated with organizing the competition shall be paid by the Organizer.
